Oregon State University Extension Service supports CPOs through an intergovernmental agreement with Washington County, the sole funder of the CPO program. Extension CPO coordinators provide information on land use and livability issues, resource referrals, and work with CPO members to increase understanding of public policy and decision-making processes.

This newsletter material was developed by OSU Extension Service and is forwarded to you as part of the Extension Service’s support to citizen involvement in local government. Washington County administration, departments, and/or officials claim no responsibility, expressed or implied, for the content of this document.

Welcome to the Citizen Participation Organization (CPO) Newsletter!

The CPO program provides somewhere to turn when you want to have your say or learn about community issues. If there is an active CPO in your area, a monthly newsletter includes articles specific to your neighborhood and will keep you informed about local land developments and transportation plans. More importantly, it will include an agenda encouraging you to come together with CPO volunteers to meet your local sheriff’s deputy or fire district personnel, and engage you in discussion with elected and public officials on topics such as:

Land Use: Residential Density, Fragmented Sidewalks, Urban Growth Boundary Expansion, Industrial Areas

Transportation: Public Transit, Plans for new or expanded roads, Bicycle Safety, Pedestrian needs, Traffic Congestion

Public Health and Safety: Mental Health Services, Homelessness, Animal Services, Environmental Health, Crime Prevention

Natural Resources: Parks and Natural Areas, Trails and Access to Natural Areas, Groundwater issues, Wildlife Habitat

Livability: Nuisance properties, Growth issues, School Funding, Noise and Light Pollution

Your interests help create the agendas for monthly meetings facilitated by volunteers where your advisory comments will be heard and respected.

Please consider attending a CPO meeting near you:

CPO 8 (North Plains, Helvetia, Mountaindale) meets the second Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m. North Plains Fire Station, 31370 NW Commercial, North Plains

CPO 10 (Laurel, Farmington, Scholls, Chehalem, Mountain, Groner) meets the third Thursday of the month at 7:00PM at Jackson Bottom Wetland Education Center, 2600 SW Hillsboro Swy.

CPO 15 (Fern Hill) meets every other third Wednesday at 7:00PM at the Forest Hills Golf Course.

Please look at CPO newsletters and agendas at http://extension.oregonstate.edu/washington/cpo

OSU to Launch Web-Based 'Aging Well' Course

"Mastery of Aging Well: A Program for Healthy Living" is a new online course developed by Oregon State University’s Division of Outreach and Engagement. It goes live Aug. 25 and is available free of charge at http://outreach.oregonstate.edu/aging-well.

Created for aging adults and those who care for them, the five-part series is co-sponsored by AARP Oregon and supported by a U.S. Department of Agriculture grant. The target audience is all Oregonians, particularly those in rural areas. As the course is Web-based, it will also be available worldwide.

"We believe this is the first program of its kind," said Sharon Johnson, OSU Extension Service associate professor in family and community health, and project leader for content development. "The goal was to build an integrated, easy-to-access online series designed specifically with the older learner in mind."

The Mastery program consists of self-paced learning modules narrated by Johnson. Each segment offers practical, research-based information relevant to the challenges many older adults face every day:

"AARP is pleased to partner with OSU on this ground-breaking effort," said Joyce DeMonnin, director of public outreach for the group’s Oregon office. "Older adults need this type of credible information they can trust and it’s great they can get it online wherever and whenever they choose."

All course content is based on material Johnson has presented in face-to-face workshops and refined over the past decade in her role as a field faculty member in the Jackson County OSU Extension Service in Central Point.

A second Mastery program, known as Option 2, will launch in early 2010. It is a greatly expanded version led by an online instructor, with extensive opportunity for student-faculty interaction. Option 2 includes additional learning materials and will be fee-based. The final program, Option 3, is also fee-based and will include instructor interaction, all course materials on DVD and the opportunity to earn a certificate of completion.

The OSU Extension Service and OSU Extended Campus, partner organizations in OSU’s Division of Outreach and Engagement, developed the Mastery course collaboratively. It is the first major grant-funded extended learning project created by Outreach and Engagement.

Public Comment Opportunity for Making the Greatest Place

On Sept. 15, Metro will open a 30-day public comment opportunity in preparation for a series of decisions the Metro Council and its regional partners will make in the coming months as part of the integrated land-use and transportation planning effort called Making the Greatest Place. The comment period will close at 5 p.m. on Oct. 15.

Several important decisions under this combined initiative are scheduled to be made by Dec. 17. The Metro Council will consider a resolution approving the policies, projects and investment strategies in the 2035 Regional Transportation Plan. In addition the Council anticipates accepting the Urban Growth Report, an analysis of the capacity of the current urban growth boundary to accommodate the region’s anticipated growth in employment and housing over the next 20 years. The Metro Council will also consider agreements with Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington counties to establish urban and rural reserves. Under these agreements, the Metro Council, in 2010, will designate urban reserves to accommodate future urban growth over the next 40 to 50 years and the counties will designate rural reserves to protect farms, forests and natural areas from urbanization for the same period.

Comments on any of these topics may be submitted in writing at any time during the comment period by email to greatestplace@oregonmetro.gov, by mail to Greatest Place Comments, Planning and Development, 600 NE Grand Ave., Portland, OR 97232, or online through a link on the project web page, www.oregonmetro.gov/greatestplace

Stormwater Management: One Backyard at a Time

What if each of us implemented just one of the ideas from this workshop

A FREE video-stream workshop will be held Tuesday, September 15, 9:00am to 11:30 am at OSU Extension Service, Room 1411E, 18640 NW Walker Road (corner of 185th and Walker). Enter at door marked D1.

This presentation will also be hosted at two other locations:

- Tigard Water Building
  8777 SW Burnham St., Tigard
  Host: Tualatin Riverkeepers
  503-620-7507

- 2701 NW Vaughn St. Ste450, Portland
  Host: West Multnomah Soil & Water Conservation District

Please pre-register at 503-238-4775

Learn how home and business owners, developers, city engineers and mayors are trying green solutions to manage the pollution running to surface and ground waters. See ideas from Whidbey Island, Washington; Bend, Oregon; and Ketchum/Sun Valley Idaho that you may implement in your backyard or town.

Some of the questions we will answer on September 15 include:

- What is a rain garden?
- How big does it need to be?
- What plants should I include?
- Why does that house have plants growing on the roof?
- Does rainwater run off your property into the street?
- Does your neighbor’s rainwater run onto your property?

This workshop should interest all gardeners, natural resource educators and students, developers, landscape companies, watershed groups, city and county engineers, planning staff, watershed groups, and caring and interested individuals.

This free workshop comes to us from the video team of Washington State University. Please call or email Sally Yackley (503.821.1128 or email: sally.yackley@oregonstate.edu ) by Thursday, September 10 to reserve a space at the OSU-hosted workshop (Walker Road location) so that we may plan for handout materials and refreshments.
