ING Unsung Heroes®
Awards Program

2007 Application
To Apply for a 2007 Award
To ensure impartiality, the 2007 program will again be managed by Scholarship America. Applications must be postmarked by April 30, 2007. To apply, complete the attached application. Additional application forms may be obtained by contacting Scholarship America or your local ING representative. The attached application may also be photocopied. To download another application and to receive more detailed information about the award recipients and their winning projects, visit the ING Unsung Heroes awards program Web site at: www.ing.com/us/unsungheroes.

Who’s Eligible?
All K-12 education professionals, whether or not they are clients of ING, are eligible. Specifically, these individuals must be:
• Employed by an accredited K-12 public or private school located in the United States
• Full-time educators, teachers, principals, paraprofessionals, or classified staff with effective projects that improve student learning

Awards are granted without regard to race, color, creed, religion, age, gender, disability, or national origin. Previous recipients of ING Unsung Heroes awards are not eligible to apply for another award.

Awards
All awards must be used to further the projects within the school or school system. Each of the 100 finalists will receive an award of $2,000. Award checks are made payable jointly to the recipient and to his or her school. At least one award will be granted in each of the 50 United States, provided one or more qualified applications are received from each state. Of the 100 finalists, three will be selected for additional financial awards. First place will receive $25,000; second place will receive $10,000; and the third place winner will receive $5,000.

Selection of Finalists
Scholarship America will select 100 finalists. ING’s Educators Advisory Board, consisting of teachers and education administrators, will select recipients of the top three awards in the summer of 2007. By October 2007, applicants will be notified whether or not they have been selected to receive an award.

Obligations and Revisions
Recipients have no obligation to ING. They are, however, required to notify Scholarship America of any changes of address or other relevant information. ING reserves the right to review the conditions and procedures of this awards program and to make changes at any time, including termination of the program.

Application Deadline
Applications must be postmarked no later than April 30, 2007. Applicants are responsible for submitting all necessary information in the required format. Completed applications may not be faxed. They must be mailed to:

Respond briefly to the three topics below. Limit each statement response to 12-point, double-spaced type on one side of 8½” x 11” paper (approximately 250 words, using one-inch margins). Please label each response using the corresponding statement heading, and include your name in the upper right corner of each page. The total number of pages submitted may not exceed three pages. All applications exceeding this limitation or following another format are subject to disqualification. Supplementary materials such as tapes, news articles, scrapbooks, and so forth, will NOT be reviewed.

Statement I: Project Description
Provide a thorough description of your project, clearly stating what you and your students will do. Describe its objectives. Tell how your project is new or different.

Statement II: Benefits to Students
How many students does or will the project directly benefit? How will your project improve student learning and impact other students and teachers, parents, and your community? How do you or will you evaluate the effectiveness of your project?

Statement III: Use of Funds
Tell what funds/money, materials, or other resources you currently use or will use to operate your project. How will you use the $2,000 award? How will you use additional money up to $25,000? Include a line-item budget that summarizes or categorizes similar items together.
