

New capacity for Statewide Programs enabled by 2015 Legislature

The Statewide Programs have expanded service to Central Oregon with the addition of these new positions and initiatives

Chris Curtin
Oregon-wide Fermentation science research & development

Nadia Streletskaia
Oregon-wide
Consumer food preferences

Andony Melathopoulos
Oregon-wide
Honey-bee and pollinator
health

Jared Jorgensen
Oregon-wide Field diagnostics to support honey-bee and pollinator health

Hannah Lucas
Oregon-wide
Lab diagnostics to support
honey-bee and pollinator
health

Len Coop
Oregon-wide
Decision support tools for sustainable pest management

Mary Halbleib
Oregon-wide
Decision support tools
for sustainable pest
management

Rory McDonnell
Oregon-wide
Sustainable management of invertebrate crop pests

Lauren Gwin
Oregon-wide
Small-scale farming and community food systems

Francesca Belart
Oregon-wide
Sustainable timber harvest

Katie Gaebel
Oregon-wide Promoting college and career opportunities

Jonathan Dinkins
Oregon-wide Rangeland ecology and sage-grouse conservation

Maziar Kandelous
Oregon-wide
Ag water quality, stormwater, nutrient
management

Si Hong Park
Oregon-wide
Food safety biology

Gerrad Jones
Oregon-wide Water engineering and
management

Karissa Dishon
Deschutes County
4-H youth development

Anna Browne Monroe
Morrow and Umatilla counties
4-H Latino outreach

Marcelo Moretti
Oregon-wide
Sustainable weed
management

Clare Sullivan
Central and Southern Oregon Small farms and community food systems

Central Oregon

Increased research and extension related to small farms and community food systems; pollinator health; and water and irrigation management.

