

New capacity for Statewide Programs enabled by 2015 Legislature

The Statewide Programs have expanded service to the Willamette Valley with the addition of these new positions and initiatives

Chris Curtin
Oregon-wide Fermentation science research & development

Nadia Streletskaya
Oregon-wide
Consumer food preferences

Andony Melathopoulos
Oregon-wide
Honey-bee and pollinator
health

Jared Jorgensen
Oregon-wide
Field diagnostics to support honey-bee and pollinator health

Hannah Lucas
Oregon-wide
Lab diagnostics to support
honey-bee and pollinator
health

Len Coop
Oregon-wide
Decision support tools for sustainable pest
management

Mary Halbleib
Oregon-wide
Decision support tools
for sustainable pest
management

Rory McDonnell
Oregon-wide
Sustainable management of invertebrate crop pests

Lauren Gwin
Oregon-wide Small-scale farming and community food systems

Francesca Belart
Oregon-wide
Sustainable timber harvest

Katie Gaebel
Oregon-wide
Promoting college and career opportunities

Jonathan Dinkins
Oregon-wide Rangeland ecology and sage-grouse conservation

Maziar Kandelous
Oregon-wide
Ag water quality, stormwater, nutrient
management

Si Hong Park
Oregon-wide
Food safety biology

Gerrad Jones
Oregon-wide
Water engineering and
management

Jenifer Cruickshank
Marion County
Sustainable dairy
management

Lauren Grand
Lane County
Sustainable forest
management

Jose Garcia
Yamhill County
Promoting college and
career opportunities

Marcelo Moretti
Oregon-wide
Sustainable weed
management

Willamette Valley

Increased research and extension on honey-bee and pollinator health; integrated pest management and slug control in commercial crops; specialty seed breeding; and timber harvest management.

