1. May 1 Enrollment Deadline

Our May 1 enrollment deadline is just two weeks away. Members, please check with your leaders to make sure you're enrolled in all the projects you want. Leaders, please contact our office to double check enrollment details. We are open Monday-Thursday, 8:00-11:30 am and 12:30-4:30 pm. If you need to turn in enrollment forms and can't get here during those hours, please use the drop box to the left of our front doors.

2. Ultimate Caduceus

On Thursday, May 8, Portland medical personnel will participate in Ultimate Caduceus – a Homeland Security drill and training exercise. Volunteers are needed to play mock victims of a mock disaster. This is a great community service opportunity. Adults and students in 6th grade or above are needed. The exercise will take place at the Portland Air National Guard Base from 7:00 am to 12:00 noon. Volunteer release forms need to be returned no later than May 1. For further information, contact 4-Her Michelle Janik at kjanik@juno.com.

3. Canine Capers

Come one, come all, bring your dogs for a great day of laughter and games! The 1st Annual Canine Capers will be held on Saturday, May 17, 2008 at the Clackamas County Fairgrounds in Canby. 4-H members registration starts at 8:30 am and the event opens to the public at 12:30 pm. The cost is only $3.00 for the whole day of fun! Highlights include:

- Prizes
- Costumes
- Best handshake
- High five
- Most colorful dog
- Fluffiest and softest dog
- Best tail wag
- Tricks
- Parade of dogs
- Awards

Questions? Contact Paula Means at 503-810-4215 or Lisa Wisdom at 503-724-0992.

4. Benton Rabbiters Small Animal Show
