Seedling Availability: Reforestation Options in a Time of Scarcity

The recent closing of two local nurseries coupled with economic uncertainty has made finding quality local seedlings for reforestation difficult. During this class you will learn where to find seedlings as well as some options for reforestation when seedlings are scarce.

We will cover:

- Sources for seedlings
- Options if you can’t find seedlings
- Growing your own seedlings
- Matching species to the site
  ...and much more

__________________________

Tuesday, December 7th
10am to Noon
Curry County Extension
29390 Ellensburg, Gold Beach

Thursday, December 9th
1 to 3pm
Coos County Extension
631 Alder, Myrtle Point

Registration Fee: $15 to cover course materials

To ensure adequate class size, please register by December 6th to tristan.huff@oregonstate.edu
541-572-5263 x 294