

4-H Youth Development
Over the Clover

VOLUME 18
 ISSUE 5
MAY, 2010

A monthly publication for the 4-H members, leaders & families of Deschutes County

Dear Friends and Families:

My introduction to the Deschutes County 4-H program started on a very wet and windy Wednesday. A storm on July 26, 1998, like I had never seen before, blew my truck all the way to the old fairgrounds. My first day on the job started on the first day of fair. It seems just like yesterday. Now, more than 12 years later, on a day with intermittent snow falling on a well season new fairgrounds, it is time to say good-bye.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my part in leading this remarkable program. A guiding principle of 4-H is to give more than take. I feel I got the better end of the deal. Your words and actions, your selfless devotion to the health and well-being of youth in this community has profoundly impacted my sense of what is right and most right when it comes to helping youth make the successful transition to adulthood.

The connections between skill building, leadership opportunities, and sustained youth/adult partnerships are strongly bound by the mastery, belonging, generosity, and independence all 4-H'ers experience in their journeys through 4-H. My firm belief is that your steadfast commitment to engage the minds, bodies, and spirits of our youngest citizens has made them more competent, confident, connected, character driven, caring, and contributing members of our society.

I now have a new role. I provide leadership for the Oregon 4-H Outdoor Education & Recreation program. My attention is now focused on statewide programs like shooting sports, sportfishing, ATV, and challenge & adventure. I will maintain an office in the Extension office on the fairgrounds.

I look forward to a volunteer role in the Deschutes County 4-H program. You will see me at fair staffing the 4-H building and helping orchestrate fund raising events throughout the year.

You were all very patient, frank, open, and honest with me. I trust you will extend the same courtesies to Candi, Todd, and Reza as they restructure, realign, and reinvigorate the Deschutes County 4-H program to meet the growing needs of this community.

Respectfully and Sincerely,

Dave

What's Up?

Have too Small of a Club to Work in the Food Booth?

How about signing up to work the special fair dinners sponsored by Incredible Edibles? We need folks to serve and bus tables during the dinner, and set up prior to the dinner. A minimum of 6, maximum of 8 helpers from 5pm—8 pm at the North Sister building on Wed, Thu, and Fri evening of fair. We could use your help.

To sign up, contact Reaza at 541-548-6088 or Reaza.Mansur@oregonstate.edu

Over the Clover Café Schedule

Sign your club up now!

Do not fear fair is not here. But, the OTC Cafe schedule is. Now is a good time to sign your club up for a shift in the OTC Café. Each morning shift needs 3 adults and 6-8 youth. Each lunch shift needs 4 adults and 7 youth. The dinner shift needs 4 adults and 6-8 youth.

Don't wait until the last minute to fill a spot. If it were not for the Café, the Leaders' Association would not have been able to provide scholarships for KYSG, OSU Summer Conference, HDLR, Camp, Japanese Exchange program, College Scholarships, and much more.

State Shooting Sports Brings New Leaders to Deschutes County

The annual Master Shooting Sports Leader training event was held in Grants Pass during April 17th and 18th in Grants Pass, Oregon. Members of the Oregon State 4-H Shooting Sports team were on hand to train nearly 50 new Shooting Sports Leader from around the state in Archery, Shotgun, Pistol and Rifle. Tim McCormick of Jefferson County also provided a delicious Dutch oven dessert demonstration.

The annual event will bring two new Archery leaders to Deschutes County. Danny King and Chuck Gregory will be working with Deschutes County 4-H Archery Leader Brian Evans, but will now have the ability to split the archery group into multiple clubs as interest continues to grow.

Probably the biggest news was from State Outdoor Ed and Rec, David White, who unveiled 15 new Oregon instructors will be going to Colorado for national training May 11-16. The addition of 14 new instructors will allow for regional trailing to occur with more frequency than once per year. Dave guesses that our group will be one of the largest contingents at the national training.

The national training will be held in Grand Junction, Colorado.

For more information about Deschutes County 4-H Shooting Sports programs, or to become a leader contact Todd Williver at the 4-H Office. 541-548-6088 or email

Pentathlon Exceeds Expectations

Did you hear about the Pentathlon? Wow, what a great event. The newest event in 4-H fundraising, the South Valley Bank & Trust 4-H Sportsmen's Pentathlon brought together 11 teams (22 participants) for a day of Hunting, Fishing and Sporting activities, followed by an evening of dining and auctions.

The sunny Saturday, one of the warmest on record for March 20th, showcased a Fly Fishing Derby, 3-D Archery Shoot, Chukar Hunt, GPS Navigation Course and a Sporting Clays venue. All 22 participants competed in every event, with the two lowest team scores being discarded to create a team total for the overall competition.

Prizes were awarded for the overall championship team, as well as the venue winners for each event. At the end of the day Two Guys and a Dog (Dr. Tom Rhueben and Dustin Kersavage) ran away with the overall victories in the Sporting Clays, Archery and Live Hunt competition. The combined score totaled 300 (out of a possible 300) points. In the two events that the Two Guys didn't win, the team placed second, behind a team from Tualatin Valley Coffee in GPS and Team Keystone in Fishing.

The Banquet/Auction hosted by Brand 33 at Aspen Lakes was also incredible. The hosts pulled out all the stops providing a generous buffet-style meal of beef, salads, pasta and bread. Master of Ceremonies, RL Garrigus, primed the audience of nearly 80 for the silent auction while Auctioneer Ralph McNulty wowed the generous crowd through an oral auction.

The inaugural event generated nearly $4000 for the Deschutes County 4-H, to provide programming and scholarship opportunities to all Deschutes County Youth.

A special thanks to all who helps make this event a success.

Pen Set Up for Fair

Each year 4-H livestock members and their families set pens in the sheep, swine and goat barns for the fair. This year is no exception, we would very much appreciate your help on Thu, July 22 starting at 5 pm. If you can't be there at 5 pm, please come when you can. Some folks will leave at 6 and new ones will be arriving, it works well in "waves." Beef members, you can help with this too. Even though the fairgrounds sets your pens, we could use your help with the other barns. Thanks in advance to everyone for their help. ccb

Congratulations to ALL Spring Horse Classic participants!

With a majority of new intermediates competing and some senior cooperating counties, Deschutes county did very well competing at this year's state contest for horse bowl, hippology, horse judging, and public speaking contests. Deschutes county also hosted the event at the Deschutes County Fair & Expo in Redmond.

The intermediate teams made up of: Lauren Walley, Deborah Dial, Lindsay Soliz, Samantha Massingale, Lauren Curl, Tristan Cox, Region Hayden and Katie Cramer ended up 15th in horse bowl, 14th in judging and 8th in hippology. They had a good time, learned many new things, and I expect most will be back next year with even more knowledge. The intermediates were coached by senior member Anna Shoffner, as well as Lynne Shoffner and Karissa Dishon.

Since many of our senior participants have participated in National contests, fielding senior teams has been a challenge. Anna Shoffner was welcomed by the Umatilla hippology team and together they competed to a 6th place finish including Anna's 3rd place individual finish.

The senior horse bowl team including Linn and Jefferson county team members ended up 4th overall.

Senior Judging Team Wins First, Returning to the National Contest

A combination of last year's senior horse bowl and hippology team placed first overall in horse judging, earning the opportunity to return to the National competition.

Three of the four members were top 10 individuals. Congratulations to Anna Shoffner, Chrystal Bates, Lindy Perry and Kayla Vincent from Jefferson county, on their success. The judging team is coached by Karissa Dishon.

Kayla Vincent, Lindy Dodd-Perry, Karissa Dishon, Chrystal Bates & Anna Shoffner

Anna Shoffner Wins First in Public Speaking

In addition to Anna's horse judging success, she also took home the medallion honors in public speaking. Her topic, College Equestrian Teams, is an outstanding presentation. Anna will compete at the National contest in public speaking.

Kayla Vincent also deserves congratulations for her speech on the National Finals Rodeo, receiving 2nd place overall in public speaking.

»» Anna, Chrystal, Lindy and Kayla are an amazing group of young ladies committed to preparation and learning of equine knowledge. Many thanks to their coaches, Lynne Shoffner and Karissa Dishon and much congratulations to all! Deschutes and Jefferson counties are proud of your success and your commitment to knowledge and education. Congratulations to all! ccb
