

Master Gardener/Master Food Preserver Cookbook Publication Information

Please contribute your favorite recipes for our collaborative cookbook. Tell us a little about the recipe, where you got it, and how you modified it over time. Be sure the directions are written in your own personal style.

Please do not submit previously copyrighted recipes unless you own the copyright. Recipes you, yourself, have previously published are allowed. Recipes you find in a magazine, online or elsewhere that are not copyrighted are fair game, so long as you identify the source.

By submitting a recipe for our cookbook you grant us permission to publish your recipe. You also allow us to edit the recipe for any errors in typing, spelling, or grammar. We reserve the right not to publish any recipe that we deem unsuitable. If we receive two or more of the same recipe, we may submit all contributors' names with the recipe.

With each recipe you submit, please include your first and last names, your phone number, and e-mail address. This information may be needed to contact you to clarify ingredients or directions. Briefly share with us what is helpful or humorous in the story of the recipe.

We would also like you to give us an idea for the title of the cookbook, appropriate to our organizations within the Douglas County OSU Extension Service.

Seven cookbook sections are planned at this time. These sections are:

- 1) Appetizers, Beverages—includes dips;
- 2) Soups, Salads—includes salad dressings, sandwiches, sauces;
- 3) Vegetables—includes side dishes;
- 4) Main Dishes—includes breakfasts, casseroles, slow cookers, vegetarian, various meats;
- 5) Breads, Rolls—includes biscuits, pancakes;
- 6) Desserts—includes pies, cakes, cookies, candies; and
- 7) Miscellaneous—includes things such as silly putty, skunk odor remover, etc.
- 8) In Memory Of, this is a section we have set aside for recipes of those not with us anymore.
