

Extension Forestry

We're here to serve you!

<http://extension.oregonstate.edu/douglas/forestry>

DOUGLAS
COUNTY OSU
EXTENSION
SERVICE

The OSU Extension Service has been your "front door" to Oregon State University since 1868.

PO Box 1165
1134 SE Douglas Ave
Roseburg, OR 97470

Phone: 541-672-4461
Fax: 541-672-4453

Woodland Assistance Sources in Douglas County

Oregon State University, Extension Service - 672-4461

- Educational programs to help you manage your family forestland
- Easy-to-understand publications
- The place to go for help with forest health/sick trees
- On-site help identifying management options
- Help writing forest management plans
- Clearing-house for woodland management questions

Oregon Department of Forestry - 440-3412

- Forest Practices Rules administration
- The place to file Notices of Operation
- The place to ask about reforestation requirements
- Information on forest management cost-share and incentive programs
- Assistance with woodland management plan development

Douglas County Woodlands Assistance Program - 440-3412

- On-site technical assistance to family forestry operations
- Emphasis on reforestation, vegetation management, young stand tending activities
- Douglas County Loan Program for family forestland improvement activities
- Seed Bank of local, native tree species
- Equipment Loan Program (planting and vegetation management equipment)

Soil and Water Conservation Districts

Douglas SWCD - 440-0867

Umpqua SWCD - 271-2611

- Farm and ranch technical and financial assistance
- Soil survey information
- Oak woodland restoration, weed eradication, and stream bank stabilization programs
- Cost share for stream enhancement and riparian restoration

Farm Service Agency - 673-8316 ext 2

- Clearinghouse for information on federal cost-share programs
- Potential financial assistance for riparian tree planting and wildlife habitat improvement
- Will refer to appropriate sources of technical assistance to coordinate cost-share with on-the-ground activities

Natural Resources Conservation Service – 673-8316 ext 3

- Technical assistance for natural resource conservation
- Incentives programs for resource conservation and enhancement
- Soil survey information

Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife - 440-3353

- Information and technical assistance with in-stream activities, riparian enhancement, wildlife management