

OSU Calving School

Calving schools are held around the state of Oregon at local and University ranches, and are designed to meet the needs of the producer with a lifetime of experience as well as the novice. Hands-on learning is the focus of the one-day school.

- Date: No currently scheduled classes. Call your local Extension office to be put on a waiting list.
- Cost: $40.00 with pre-registration required. Class size limited to 12.

Obstetrics/Calving Difficulty

Hands-on experience

Management for successful calving

Successful Calving!