“BUILDING LOCAL PARTNERSHIPS TO PROMOTE THE HEALTH OF OREGONIANS”
June 29, 2011
Oregon State University, CH2M Hill Alumni Center

9:00 Check-in and refreshments
9:30 Welcome remarks: Tammy Bray, Dean, College of Health and Human Sciences
9:40 Overview of the day: Marc Braverman, Associate Dean, College of HHS
9:45 Perspectives on public health in Oregon
   “Priority and Emerging Public Health Issues in Oregon”
   Mel Kohn, MD, MPH, Director, Oregon Public Health Division
   “Adding Value Through Extension–Public Health Partnerships”
   Kathleen O’Leary, RN, MPH, Chair, Oregon Coalition of Local Health Officials
10:30 Overview of 2011 OCHO pilot projects
   Linn, Klamath, Jackson/Josephine, and Jefferson Counties
10:50 BREAK
11:00 Networking session
   Small-group discussions around selected community health topics 12:00 LUNCH Speaker: “Community Partnerships for Health”
   Arthur Kaufman, MD, Dept. of Community Health, Univ. of New Mexico
1:00 “What Funders Would Like You to Know About the Grantmaking Process”
   A panel of Oregon grantmakers (individual remarks followed by Q & A)
   Moderator: Sally Bowman, Assistant Program Leader, Extension FCH Program
   Participants: John Amoroso, The Ford Family Foundation
                Marian Blankenship, The PacificSource Charitable Foundation
                R. David Rebanal, The Northwest Health Foundation
                Megan Schumaker, The Oregon Community Foundation
2:30 Networking session
   Small-group discussions by region, with planning of potential regional partnerships, projects, and funding opportunities
3:30 Summary, Closing Discussion, and Reflections
   Roger Rennekamp, Program Leader, Extension 4-H Youth Development Program
   A. Scott Reed, Vice Provost for University Outreach and Engagement, Oregon State University, and Director, OSU Extension Service
4:00 ADJOURN & SAFE TRAVELS