

Practical Gardening by OSU Extension Service Master Gardeners

Held at River Road Annex ~ 1055 River Road, Eugene, 97404.

Call 688-4052 to register.

ID (In District cost)

OD (Out of District cost)

1. Putting your Garden to Bed and Extending the Garden Season

Cost: $10.00 ID/$15 OD

Thursday, October 15, 2009 7:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Speaker: TBA, OSU Extension Service Master Gardeners

Easy steps that will help you build healthy soil all winter long. Learn about garden clean up, cover crops, sheet compost, and mulch to ready your garden for planting in the spring. Plus how to keep growing through the winter weather by extending your growing season using techniques such as growing tunnels, cloches and row covers.

2. Winter Care for your Fruit Trees and Small Fruits

Thursday, November 19, 2009 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Cost: $10.00 ID/$15 OD

Speaker: Mary Leontovich and Patty Driscoll,

OSU Extension Service Master Gardeners

Learn how to care for your fruit trees and small fruits (berries and grapes) during the winter. Find out when and what to spray to promote healthy fruit production in your backyard.

3. Basic Backyard Pruning for Fruit, Flower and Form

Thursday, December 10, 2009 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Cost: $10.00 ID/$15 OD

Speaker: Mary Claska and, Patty Driscoll,

OSU Extension Service Master Gardeners and Pruning Specialists

Learn basic pruning techniques; proper pruning cuts, choosing tools, maintaining tools and safety. You will learn how pruning cuts affect growth in plants. Learn to prune to encourage fruits, flowers, and maintain the form of the plant.