

OSU Lane County Extension Service to Celebrate 100 Years

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
September 13, 2011

Contact: Ross Penhallegon, Horticulture Faculty
Phone: 541-344-1709

[Eugene, Oregon] – The Oregon State University Extension Service is 100 years old. The Lane County office of the OSU Extension Service will celebrate this auspicious occasion with an open house on Thursday, September 22, 2011 from 2:30-6 p.m. Festivities will be held at the new office located at 783 Grant Street, Eugene in the Rainbow Valley Design & Construction building. (Grant Street is between Garfield and Chambers).

Event will include:

2:30 p.m. - Welcome and Recognition of Partners (Media event)

3:30 p.m. - Tour of Facilities

5 p.m. - Presentation of Partner Awards followed by cutting of the 100 Year Celebration cake

5:30 p.m. - Tour of Facilities (for those that missed the 3:30 p.m. tour)

Door prizes will be provided by volunteer groups. Informational tables will showcase several Extension programs and key supporters. Learn about the Farms and Gardens Program, Master Gardeners, Master Food Preservers, Nutrition Education Program, Lane Community College (LCC) Agricultural Business Management Program, and Rainbow Valley Design & Construction. Light refreshments will be served.

Join the staff of the OSU Lane County Extension Service office, LCC Agricultural Business Management program, and Rainbow Valley Design & Construction along with many dedicated volunteers and learn about how to keep the valuable services of the OSU Extension Service in Lane County for another 100 years.