Small Fruits Review

1. List considerations for soil preparation before planting raspberries.

2. Which small fruits have ornamental value, as well as providing food? List 2.

3. Strawberries will usually produce well for:
   a. 10 years
   b. only 1 or 2 years
   c. 3-4 years
   d. until you take them out

4. Fertilize strawberries each spring with a high nitrogen fertilizer. True or false.

5. What pH do blueberries prefer? Do you need to add lime?

6. How can you make ‘everbearing’ raspberries into one crop berries? Why would you do this?

7. The best way to get a start of raspberry plants is from someone else’s garden. True or false. Why?

8. If soil is not well drained, which of the following can you probably grow?
   a. raspberries
   b. blackberries
   c. strawberries
   d. blueberries
   e. grapes

9. How should you choose the grape variety to plant here?

10. How are blackberries usually pruned?
11. Don’t prune more than 1/3 off a grape vine. True or false.

12. Thin out runners on strawberries. True or false. Why?

13. Cranberries are strictly a bog plant and not suitable for the garden. True or false.

14. A caller wants to plant small fruits in a shady yard. What is your response?

15. Why do you want to plant more than one blueberry variety?

16. The roots of blueberries require heat and thus should never be covered deeply. True or false.

17. What fertilizer program should grapes have?

18. What are some advantages of a strawberry pyramid planter? (List 3)

19. What is a “day-neutral” strawberry?