

Fall 2009

Gardening in the Pacific Northwest

Brownbag series

Co-sponsored by OSU Linn County Master Gardeners and Linn Benton Community College

Welcome to a series of short lunchtime sessions on popular gardening topics for Linn County gardeners! Bring a sack lunch and meet other gardeners with similar interests. It's informal, informative, and fun – no reservations needed, and no charge! PNW Brown Bag classes are held on Wednesdays in Albany at the Library (2450 14th Ave SE).

On Thursdays, classes are held at the Sweet Home LBCC Center located at Sweet Home High School (1660 Long St). Classes begin at noon and end at 1 p.m.

October 7, 8, Bountiful Bulbs – Flower Power for the Garden Yvonne Castillo
Plant spring bulbs for continuous blooms. Various containers, bulbs, and plants for seasonal blooms.

October 14, 15 Fall Garden Prep – Stepping into Spring Paul Westerberg
How to prepare your garden for winter, giving it a head start on spring planting.

October 21, 22 Hardy Gardeners & Hardy Vegetables for winter gardens. Betty Goergen
An easy way to plant and have veggies through part of the winter months.

October 28, 29 Heirloom Pumpkins Barbara Rowe
Growing heirlooms, From pies to jack-o-lanterns.
Note: Due to a scheduling conflict, this class will be taught at the Albany Senior Center (489 Water Ave NW), downtown Albany. All other classes in Albany are held at the Albany Public Library.

November 4, 5 Hardscapes: Spiffing up your landscape Larry Steele
Do it yourself walkways, pathways, retaining walls. Hardscapes are important parts of the landscape.

November 11, 12 NO CLASSES HELD

November 18, 19 Herbs – Fun to Grow & Easy to use Jeanette Halseth
Easy-to-grow herbs, and ways to use them.

Oregon State University Extension Service offers educational programs, activities, and materials without discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, marital status, disability, or disabled veteran or Vietnam-era veteran status. Oregon State University Extension Service is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

