Speaker’s Bureau Information - 2010

A great way to become known for your horticulture skills is to become a part of the Speaker’s Bureau and be assigned to make an educational presentation to an interested group. Our Master Gardener coordinators pair you with requests from garden clubs, civic groups and other organizations. You will receive presentation training if necessary and resource support from our office. You are never assigned before you say “yes” to the opportunity.

There are many requests for speakers throughout the year. Estimate 4 hours for each engagement to include travel time, speech and socializing with the group. Please indicate subjects in which you feel qualified. If we can sit down and chat about a subject for half an hour and you are comfortable with the topic, you are ready to go!

I can speak: __ Anytime __ Weekdays __ Days __ Evenings
__ Weekends __ Days __ Evenings
