Camp counselor meeting

Lobster Creek Camp counselor meeting will be Thursday, July 9, 5:30 pm at Touvelle Park. Anne will provide food and beverages, but bring your lawn chairs and LOTS of ideas!

As usual, we will need to pay to park each vehicle, so I will pick up the envelopes and pay after everyone gets there.

Any questions? E-mail Anne at manlove.a@oregonstate.edu or call the office.

Fashion Revue in the Rose Garden

If you have never attended a Fashion Revue event, we invite you to do so. Fashion Revue is the “showmanship” so to speak, of the clothing project. The kids make their outfits or accessories and model them. This is a fun event to attend so you can meet the kids that do the sewing projects….who knows maybe you will want to participate in Fashion Revue next year.

It will be held Tuesday July 14, 7:00 pm in the Rose Garden at the Extension Office.

Making Connections……..

We have had a few more calls, so we are “spreading the word.”

Assorted used horse equipment to good home: Bridle, bit, English helmet, Western felt hat, saddle rack that attaches to wall, show vests for 12 to 14-year olds, etc. Call Arlene at 541-261-9402.

Dogs for the Deaf is in the beginning stages of raising Autism Assistance puppies and is in need of foster families for the puppies. The time period would be from weaning through nine months of age. These will Lab puppies. If interested please call Paula Lysinger at 541-826-9220, ext. 302

Sarah Sanders from Muffin Rescue Ranch in Trail is looking for either a used pair of clippers she can use to shear her 3 llamas or she is willing to pay someone to come and do it for her. If interested please call her at 541-621-6459.
