2011 Food Preservation Classes

All classes held at:
OSU Extension Service- Washington County  18640 NW Walker Road. Entrance D-1, Beaverton, OR, 97006  (CAPITAL Center, at the corner of 185th and Walker Roads)

Classes are 6:00 – 9:00 pm.

Class size limited. Preregistration required. Contact OSU Extension Service at 503-821-1150

Cost is $20.00 per class. $70.00 if all 4 classes are taken.

1. __ Introduction to Food Preservation, Jams and Jellies.  Wednesday, June 15, 2011
Basic techniques used for all methods of preservation. Make jams/jellies in class. Low sugar and freezer jam options included.

2. __Fruits and Pie Fillings.  Wednesday, July 6, 2011
Preservation of fruit products; canning, freezing and drying reviewed. Learn to control the amount of sugar, to can fruit in juice and make pie fillings.

3. __Vegetables and Meats.  Wednesday, July 20, 2011
Canning vegetables and meats requires use of a pressure canner. Review the use and care of a pressure canner as well as pickling and freezing tips.

4. __Tomatoes, tomato products.  Wednesday, August 3, 2011
Preserve your crop of tomatoes for year-round enjoyment. Review current, safe methods for tomato preservation including “The Laws of Salsa,” and green tomato options.

__________Cut here:_____________Save the top portion as a reminder____________

I would like to register for the following classes:

___1. Intro, Jams, Jellies     ___2. Fruits     ___3. Vegetable, meats     ___4. Tomatoes

__________Amount enclosed. Please enclose $20.00 per class or $70.00 for all 4 classes.

Name: ____________________________________________________________

Address: _________________________________________________________ Phone: ____________________

Send this form with payment to:
Washington County Extension
18640 NW Walker Road #1400
Beaverton, OR 97006-8927

Make checks payable to “OSU Extension”

Refunds cannot be provided for cancellations once the series begins.