(Bull Mountain Rd., South on 133rd Ave., Left on Batterson Ln.)

AGENDA

7:00 Welcome and Meeting Overview

7:05 Washington County Sheriff's Department will be available to answer questions and provide recent crime statistics for the ESPD (Enhanced Sheriff's Patrol District)

7:10 Proposed Tigard Tualatin Aquatic District - Kathy Stallkamp will present information on the proposed special district that may come before voters living in the Tigard Tualatin School District (TTSD). Ms. Stallkamp is a member of a citizen group responding to the school district's decision to close both high school pools due to a budgetary shortfall. The TTSD estimates that the pools are used by community members 80% of the time. Learn what this group is doing to help keep the swimming pools open and what it will cost property owners if passed by voters in May 2010.

7:25 Here's One for the Refrigerator! Yolanda McVicker will present an informative handout listing school-year activities for kids of all ages.

7:40 Citizen Involvement and You! Who, What, When, Where and WHY....
Citizen Involvement in Washington County and City of Tigard

Citizen Participation Organizations (CPOs) exist to provide all Washington County residents with a means to facilitate effective citizen involvement in the planning and development of matters affecting the quality of life and livability of their community. Patt Opdyke, OSU Extension CPO coordinator, drawing on years of experience, will speak to the difference that citizens make in their neighborhoods when they bring commitment, perseverance and enthusiasm to public policy issues.

City of Tigard's citizen involvement opportunities provide Tigard citizens with additional opportunities to become actively involved in their neighborhoods and in the Tigard community. Learn more about how to be an effective voice for the future.

*Continued discussion on City of Tigard resolution relating to CPO boundaries and possible formation of CPO4T

8:50 Open Microphone to bring up questions, announce upcoming events, explore topics for future discussion or share what's happening in your neighborhood.

8:55 - 9:00 Local Land Development Announcements

-October 1st General Meeting-
Washington County Election Process and Candidate/Ballot Measure Forum
