Announcements

Summer Conference

We are still looking for a couple of 4-H leaders to chaperone youth. Just call our office for more information 503-821-1119 or 503-821-1120.

EAGLE Trek Camp

There are still openings for both counselors and campers. See the website for more information: <http://extension.oregonstate.edu/washington/4h/eagle-trek-camp>.

Washington County Fair

The Washington County Fair and Horse Fair are fast approaching and we would like to update you on a few items.

Fair Book

It's now finalized and available for your use. Class numbers have stayed the same, but there are a couple of updates we wanted to make you aware of:

The new theme for Best Dressed Vegetable is: Night at the Museum

The dates for Intermediate heifer calf have been updated to reflect the current year.

Maggie Becker is the Horticulture Superintendent with Colleen Hampton.

Barb Bodyfelt and Lisa Poehlitz are the Home Environment Superintendents.

Awards listed in the back of the Fair book are State Fair Awards only.

The Fashion Revue Explanation card listed in the links at the top of the page is the correct one for this year.

Horticulture

Cloverbuds member's horticulture and other items will be judged on Saturday July 25th at the Cloverleaf Building. A change for this year will be that Cloverbuds members are welcome to replace their exhibits on Tuesday July 28th with fresh flowers/veggies of the same type to have a fresh exhibit during the fair.

Horse Fair

Patterns have been posted.

Genny Olmstead Award – Deadline June 9th

I Did It Myself Award – Deadline June 9th

Superintendents

Fair Exhibitor forms are now in the office and available for you to make copies.

Please contact Trish or Pat to arrange for a time if you would like to stop by and make copies.

As always, please be sure to look over your project area's rules when putting together your project to make sure that fair goes as smooth as possible. If you have any questions, the fair superintendents are available to help you.
