California Poppy
Eschscholzia californica

Annual plant that sometimes behaves as a perennial in the Pacific Northwest. To 2 ft. tall with finely divided grayish foliage and golden yellow-orange flowers that bloom throughout the summer.
Self seeds readily.
Drought tolerant/Sun/Food source, shelter or nesting sites for birds/Recommended for wildlife meadow garden