Clackamas County Farm Bureau is proud to sponsor the 4-H Animal Showmanship Awards at Clackamas County Fair

The Voice of Oregon Agriculture

Did You Know?
- Clackamas County is the second most productive agricultural county in the state.
- Today’s American farmer feeds about 155 people worldwide. In 1960, that number was 25.8.
- A farmer's share of your food dollar only averages about 12 cents (according to recent analysis from USDA).
- Clackamas County Farm Bureau Awarded $100,000 in scholarships to Clackamas Co. Students over the last 10yrs.
- Farm Bureau employs a time-tested, open, democratic annual grassroots process to reach its public policy positions.

The ultimate goal is the survival and success of the family farm and ranch in Oregon.

For more information, go to www.oregonfb.org or visit us on Facebook at Oregon Farm Bureau.

Oregon Farm Bureau invites 4-Hers to join Young Farmers & Ranchers

Who We Are: The OFB’s Young Farmers & Ranchers (YF&R) program is open to ag producers aged 16 to 35

What We Do: Develop leadership and communication skills, and put them to use to make a difference for agriculture in the state and national legislature.

How We Do It: Travel around Oregon and the U.S. for Farm Bureau conferences, workshops, and tours.

Our Mission: To recruit, network, and educate young farmers and ranchers to represent Oregon Farm Bureau, while creating opportunities for community outreach, bridging the gap between generations, and sustaining the future of farming and ranching in Oregon.

For more information, go to www.fb.org and click on Programs, or follow us on Facebook: Young Farmers and Ranchers of Oregon.