Held Saturday of Fair at Columbia County Fairgrounds

RULES

1. Contestants must be enrolled in clothing, knitting or crocheting project and model a garment made in the project. Judging held the Saturday during Fair at Columbia County Fairgrounds at 10 am in the Pavilion. Public Revue will be at 11 am on the stage behind the Pavilion.

2. Participants should bring a copy of the Fashion Revue Card (320-06) information card with fabric samples. Participants must bring a typed commentary (100 to 150 words) in 14 pt Times New Roman font to be read when they model during the judging and during the public revue. The typed description should not include information that would be considered too personal (i.e. size of garment or something really embarrassing) nor provide too much private information (address, town, school, etc.) as these commentaries are read in a public setting. The typed description must be attached to the form provided by the Extension office. Garments and commentary must be completed to be judged.

3. To be eligible for awards or State Fair, member must model the garment they made before the judge. Judging criteria are outlined on the Style Revue Score Card (320-05) in the 4-H Fashion Revue publication, 4-H 920, available at the County Extension office and the website: http://oregon.4h.oregonstate.edu/special-events/state-fair/cm-contests. State Fair has additional rules.

FASHION REVUE – Ready to Wear

RULES

1. Fashion Revue – Ready to Wear is open to any 4-H member.

2. Participants may combine newly purchased clothing with up to two items or accessories they already own to present a “Total Look” including shoes and accessories. Newly purchased items, including accessories, must make up at least half of the items in the outfit. Cost of newly purchased clothing including accessories is limited to a total of $25 or less.

3. Participants will bring their garments with them on the day of their scheduled judging. Participants must bring a completed Fashion Revue – Ready to Wear information card, a photo of the garment being worn, and a typed commentary (100-150 words) to be read when they model during the judging and during the public revue. The typed description should be on a regular 8 ½ x 11 sheet of white paper, double spaced, in 14 pt Times New Roman font. The typed description should not include information that would be considered too personal (i.e. size of garment or something really embarrassing) nor provide too much private information (address, town, school, etc.) as these commentaries are read in a public setting.

4. Judging criteria are outlined on the new Ready-to-Wear Fashion Revue Score Card (320-07) available at the county Extension office or on the State 4-H website at: http://oregon.4h.oregonstate.edu/special-events/state-fair/cm-contests
Judging will include an interview where judges may ask the participants to explain decisions they made in selecting the items they purchased. State Fair has additional rules.
