SNAP-Ed and Family & Community Health

- The SNAP-Ed team is continuing their work on the Oregon Department of Education Farm to School project, the script and music selection have been finalized and Salmon King Fisheries began filming.
- The Native American workgroup continues to meet and provide resources across the state to SNAP-Ed educators relevant to tribal communities of Oregon.
- The Traditional Foods Project team has contracted with a local artist for the creation of art to be included as part of the educational toolkit.
- We are excited to welcome back Sara Rogers after a two year medical leave.

Livestock and Agriculture

- 6 Growing Tribal Farms participants have submitted their business plans. 5 have received $10,000 grants to start or expand their agricultural enterprises on the Warm Springs Reservation. 1 plan is in review.
- Ellise David is putting together a 4-H Agriculture Club and will be hosting a virtual meeting the first week of October for community members to learn more about 4-H and the options for projects youth can do as a part of the club. Scholarships will be available to youth to assist them in successfully completing the 4-H agriculture project of their choosing.

Warm Springs Garden Kits

- We have shared the Garden Box Request form through the Warm Springs Extension Facebook page. Link to the form: <https://beav.es/oNF>
