Sample minutes for a livestock club

The Oregon Trail Livestock Club met at Sharon Shannon's home Saturday afternoon, July 17. First we hiked to Shannon's pasture where we saw Sharon's and her father's Shropshire sheep. Sharon told us about each of her ewes and their lambs. She has three ewes and five lambs. Harold Shannon told us about the pasture and showed us how to identify ryegrass, orchardgrass, and tall fescue. He also told us about liver flukes, their life cycle and control.

We had our meeting in the shade of a big maple tree by the creek. George presided. For roll call topic, we had to name a kind of grass or weed. Fourteen members and one visitor, Harold Shannon, were present.

Bill Jones told us about a county livestock tour that we could attend and take sleeping bags and sleep outside. It will cost $4.00 each for food and transportation. We will see a big dairy, a hog farm with a new kind of hog house, and go swimming. We must call him tonight after we get home if we can attend.

Lyle and Susan demonstrated how to make a sheep halter. Bill, our junior leader, told us how to figure pasture cost in our records and to bring our record books to the next meeting.

Back at the house, Sharon and her mother served punch and cookies.

The next meeting will be at Smith's on July 31 at 7:00 p.m.

Sample minutes for a clothing club

Our first meeting of the new club year was held at Mary Martin's home at 7:00 p.m., October 8. All eight old members and two new members were present.

Susie Smith and Debby Duncan led the pledges.

Carol Jones, our leader, told us about the next phase of the clothing project. We will all take Phase 3 except Laura and Joan, who will take Phase 2 first, then Phase 3 so they can be up with us next year.

We elected officers. We hid our eyes on our arms and lifted our hands when we wanted to vote. Carol Jones counted the votes for president, then Cheri counted the rest.

Our new officers are: Cheri Wallace—president, Debby Duncan—vice-president, Mary Martin—secretary, Susie Smith—song leader, and Carla Cummings—game leader.

We filled out our enrollment forms. Mary made out an order for 4-H materials. Carol Jones will send them to the local Extension office so we can have our new manuals and record sheets for our next meeting.

We decided to meet at 7:00 p.m. on the first and third Thursday of each month. The next meeting will be at Carla's.

Mary served cookies and punch, then we sang 4-H songs. Meeting adjourned.
