Joint MoCo Wheat Growers and Livestock Growers Meeting
January 5, 2022
Gilliam-Bigsbee Building, Heppner

7:30AM  Coffee and Donuts, Breaking Grounds
        Sponsored By: Morrow County Livestock Growers

8:00AM  Welcome
        Deacon Heideman, Gilliam County Wheat Growers President
        Erin Heideman, Morrow County Wheat Growers President
        Morrow County Livestock Growers Secretary
        Clint Carlson, Oregon Wheat Growers Immediate Past-President

8:30AM  Industry News
        Amanda Hoey, Oregon Wheat Growers Chief Executive Officer

8:45AM  Morrow and Gilliam County Crop Production
        Larry Lutcher, OSU Crop Production, Morrow County: TOPIC?
        Jordan Malley, OSU Ag/Dry Crop Production, Gilliam County: The continued invasion and work to eradicate the Mormon cricket infestation in Gilliam and Morrow counties.

9:45AM  NRCS
        Joe Kline, Range Management Specialist

10:15AM Morrow County Soil & Water Conservation District Trenton Gianella, Wildlife Habitat Technician: Trent is currently enrolled in his masters program at OSU with a project: Evaluating the Impact of Annual Grasses on Mule Deer Resource Selection, Forage Quality and Composition throughout the Northern Grassland Foothills of the Heppner Game Management Unit.

10:30AM Farm Service Agency Programs and Opportunities.
        Blair Potalla, FSA County Executive Director, Morrow

11:00AM Annual Meetings for MCLG and MCWG.

Lunch: Catered by: Gateway Cafe
        Sponsored By Morrow and Gilliam County Wheat Growers

1:00PM Greetings
        Tammy Dennee, Oregon Cattleman’s Association Executive Director
        Andy VanderPlaat, Oregon Cattleman’s Association, Regional VP
1:30PM  DNA testing and enhancing animal values through genetics and how it can make a difference in herd and marketing improvements
Tanner King, Territory Manager, Neogen

2:30PM  Adjourn