Fruit Tree Pruning Clinic

Instructor: Elliott Goldstein, Certified Master Gardener

Fruit trees need proper pruning to remain productive. This hands-on workshop will cover why pruning is important, when to prune and fertilize fruit trees, tools and safety, and how to evaluate a tree and determine which branches to cut. Following a 30 minute information session, participants will work in small groups with real trees. Each group will tie ribbons onto the branches to simulate where cuts should be made. Discussion will occur among attendees as well as with the instructor to discuss and analyze options for pruning. The instructor will discuss the advantages and disadvantages of different cut locations and how this will affect the overall shape and structure of the tree. This class will be held outside. Participants should be prepared for cold/wet weather and dress accordingly. No tools needed.

The class is located at the Josephine County Food Bank,
3658 Upper River Rd, Grants Pass, OR 97526

Pesticide (Herbicide, Fungicide and Insecticide) Selection for Turfgrass

Instructor: Alec Kowalewski, Associate Professor, Turf Specialist, Oregon State University

This workshop for commercial landscapers and other turfgrass professionals will cover important topics that will help managers make informed decisions about pesticide use. Topics will include pest identification (weeds, fungi and insect) and pesticide selection for selective/non-selective, and pre/post-emergence herbicides. Preventative and curative insecticides and fungicides will be discussed. In addition, application timing and rotation will be presented to help prevent resistance, drift, and pollinator death. (This workshop will qualify for 2 pesticide credits, pending ODA approval).

Managing Weeds in Annual Cropping Systems

Instructors: Gordon Jones, Assistant Professor (of Practice) General Agriculture, Jackson & Josephine County Extension & Sara Runkel, Assistant Professor (of Practice) Horticulture, Josephine County Extension.

Do you grow vegetables, hemp, or other annual crops? Have you struggled to keep up with weeds during the season? Come to this workshop to learn about controlling common weeds in the Rogue Valley and how to develop a weed management plan for your farm. We will discuss weed biology and various control methods including mechanical tools, cultural techniques, and chemical options. We’ll use examples appropriate for both organic and conventional systems. You will leave with the start of a weed management plan for your farm. (This workshop will qualify for 2 pesticide credits, pending ODA approval).

Who Should Attend

Produce growers, buyers, and others interested in learning about:

- Best food safety practices for growing, harvesting and packing produce
- Key requirements of the Food Safety Modernization Act (FSMA) Produce Safety Rule

Even if your farm or operation isn't covered by the rule (check here!) this up-to-the-minute training is a great opportunity for anyone growing, harvesting or handling covered produce.

As a reminder, the PSA Grower Training Course is currently the only way to satisfy the FSMA Produce Safety Rule requirement outlined in § 112.22(c) that requires ‘At least one supervisor or responsible party for your farm must have successfully completed food safety training at least equivalent to that received under standardized curriculum recognized as adequate by the Food and Drug Administration.’

The course will provide a foundation of FSMA Produce Safety Rule requirements and details on how to develop a farm food safety plan. Individuals who participate in this course are expected to gain a basic understanding of:

- Microorganisms relevant to produce safety and where they may be found on the farm
- How to identify microbial risks, practices that reduce risks, and how to begin implementing produce safety practices on the farm
- Parts of a farm food safety plan and how to begin writing one
- Requirements in the FSMA Produce Safety Rule and how to meet them.

After attending the entire course, participants will be eligible to receive a certificate from the Association of Food and Drug Officials (AFDO) that verifies they have completed the training course.

Maintaining a Healthy Forest in an Uncertain Climate

Discover practical, cost-effective approaches to strengthen your forest’s resilience to wildfire, bugs and drought

There are Options!
Higher temperatures. New weather patterns. How is a change in climate impacting your woodlands? Increased drought, wildfire, and decreased resilience to insects and disease can kill trees and reduce the value of your forestland. Knowing the risks and taking action to mitigate these impacts on your forest land can save you money in the long run, while improving the health of your forest. This is a full day workshop for forestland owners of all sizes and management objectives.
