The High Desert Leadership Retreat occurs every year over the Martin Luther King Jr. weekend for 7th-12th graders. This year 8 Lake County 4-H members attended the event including Kaley Schneider, Cody Carlon, Alyson Yates, Dani Bates, Wade Crumley, Brianna Haynes, Anna Robinson, and Sadie Crumley. Upon arrival at Eagle Crest Resort members are placed into groups of 6 with an adult chaperone. The first thing the group must do is work as a team to plan meals for the weekend. The group then buys all the food within a given budget and during the weekend prepares the meals. This is an opportunity to meet other 4-H members from across the state of Oregon and live with them for a weekend. There are many leadership and team building competitions throughout the weekend. Sadie Crumley who attended this retreat for the last two years says: “One of the best parts of the weekend is meeting many new people, making new friends, and learning what kids are doing in 4-H across Oregon. I am always surprised to hear how different kids interests and lives are.”

The weekend provides a variety of classes each member may sign up to take. These classes are taught by volunteers and 4-H extension staff. Some classes this year included leatherwork, fly tying, study of horses, livestock skills, art, wood working, and cooking. “Attending the classes is very fun and I always learn something new,” says Sadie. “The instructors are super nice and make learning a fun adventure. I highly recommend 4-H members go to this retreat next year,” encourages Sadie. “I want to thank Lake County 4-H Association for giving me a scholarship to attend this retreat. It was a blast!”

Attention all Livestock Members

It's time to start thinking about livestock weigh-ins!

It is a requirement by the 4-H & FFA Market Sale Committee that all 4-H & FFA livestock members bring their animals to a weigh-in to be tagged, weighed and to declare ownership. Below is the scheduled dates and times of livestock weigh-ins. Please mark your calendars!

The theme for camp this year is “Full Steam Ahead!” During Camp, youth can expect to learn new skills during classes, have fun using the low ropes course, explore the forest during group hikes and much more! Youth will be grouped with a teen camp counselor who will guide them through camp. Youth do not need to be currently enrolled 4-H members to attend camp.
4-H Float

Saturday, March 16th

The Timberline Treasures 4-H Club will be coordinating a 4-H Float this year, once again, in honor of the annual Irish Days celebration.

For more information, please contact Kristi Gray, Timberline Treasures 4-H Club Leader.
