Enrollment Fees – 2020-2021

Due to the unknown situation of COVID19 we have made the decision to waive the 4-H member county enrollment fees for this year but the Oregon State University 4-H state fees will still be collected.

- The OSU State 4-H fee is $25.00 per 4-H member with a maximum family fee of $50.00 if paid before January 31, 2021.

- The fee will be assessed for each of the first two family members who join 4-H.

- After January 31, 2021 the fee increases to $30.00 per 4-H member with a maximum family amount of $60.00 if received February 1, 2021 or later.

In order to exhibit at fair, 4-H on-line enrollment and fees are due before January 31, 2021.

We are here to assist YOU!

We can have the public in the office by appointment only.

Background checks are due every other year

Required Volunteer COVID Training

All volunteers are required to take the following COVID training: https://envisionextension.thinkific.com?th__ug=4c804da0

Please enter your county as Malheur County and the program as 4-H

Next: Call the Extension office to set-up a virtual appointment for reviewing the next steps. Some of the items included in the next steps are: Completing and submitting a Safety Plan to the Extension Office (a template will be provided) BEFORE meetings or events are held.

The planning process will include:
1. Contact tracking sheet (sign-in/out) including family members who are present
2. Meeting location/size/area
3. Bathroom facilities available (and sanitizing plan before/between/after use)
4. PPE equipment or supplies to be used

Club Requirements and Guidelines

1. All clubs are required to have a minimum of two approved, enrolled adult volunteers. At least one volunteer must be age 25 or older. The second volunteer must be at least 18 years old and at least 3 years older than the youth being supervised.

1. Clubs should strive to enroll at least five youth from at least three different families and meet at least six times per year. We will enroll your group as a club if you have at least three members from at least two families.

Due to Malheur County being put on the COVID-19 extreme risk list by the Oregon Governor, Kate Brown, OSU-Malheur County 4-H clubs may only meet virtually.

Our team is here to help you engage 4-H members in virtual club meetings

✓ Provide a Zoom account for you to use for your 4-H club meetings
✓ Help you set-up a Zoom meeting for your club members
✓ Provide assistance with virtual content and lessons
✓ Help prepare packets for members to complete independently
✓ Set-up trainings for your members such as 4-H Record books, public speaking, and team building
