WHAT'S UP?

Manager Needed

We are in need of an individual(s) that can manage the Over The Clover Café during our 2024 Deschutes County Fair.

One of the biggest fundraising opportunity for Deschutes County 4-H is our café during fair. The funds are used to provide scholarships for enrollment, camps and such. We unfortunately won't be getting Ian this year and are in need of a Manager to help run the café.

Some of the Manager Duties consist of:

- Being Present to Open & Close Café
- Oversee and support Volunteer Clubs with Café Orders
- Order supplies for Café to meet menu needs.

Interested or know someone who can assist with this role this year please contact Reaza Hacker.

LEADER LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES

4-H Foods, Sewing & Art Leader Training Opportunity with Jan Williams from Clackamas County

Are you working with a 4-H club of youth in the Art, Sewing, or Foods projects and you're not quite sure what to do next? Do your club members want more? Are you looking for fair project ideas?

We can help! Come to one or more of these interactive online sessions for 4-H club leaders.

Here's what we'll be doing:

- Learning fun club meeting activities and sharing skill-building project ideas.
 - Highlighting Blue Ribbon tips and techniques.
- Sharing information and help with NEW fair classes and fair exhibit ideas.

Bring your ideas and questions! We will offer some project ideas and resources!

Please register, using the links below, for the class or classes you would like to attend.

A Zoom link will be sent to registered participants.

WHAT'S UP?

Adult Volunteers (Club Leaders / Co-Leaders)

2023-2024 4-H volunteer enrollments are coming through. I am unable to approve you until you have completed the Youth Safety Training online. You may find this training within your 4-H online enrollment. (This is an annual process)

A Criminal History Check (CHC) is done every 2 years.

Once you have been fully enrolled, you'll receive an e-mail with instructions and a code to be able to access your club's roster through your 4-H online account.

Remember: You are not in compliance and will not be covered by insurance if you are not enrolled.

Last New Leader Training:
Thursday April 25, 2024 @6:00 PM

Don't Forget!

All New Leaders / Co-Leaders that completed
Part #1 of the new leader training must attend
Part #2 New Leader Training

SPOTLIGHT

If you have anything special to share out please submit to Christina Toledo no later than the 25th of the month for the next month's newsletter. Here are some of the spotlights for this month.

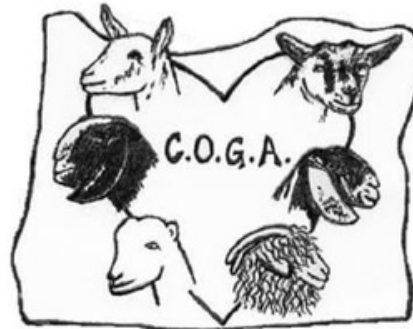

VOLUNTEERS

4-H would not be possible if we didn't have volunteers. We appreciate greatly ALL our 4-H volunteers, Superintendents, Club Leaders / Co-Leaders and all. Every one of you serve to make a positive impact in the life of youth in Deschutes County and we want to appreciate you today and always.

FUN FACT:
April is National Volunteer
Appreciation month.
Every Moment Matters!

Thank you!

CLASS INFORMATION

Goats 101

Covering all the basics about goats, health, and care in a “town hall” format. This class will be your gateway to the rest of the classes offered throughout the day.

Goats 102

Maintenance, hoof trimming, vaccinations, tattooing, tagging and more.

Fiber & Milk By-Products

Explore the opportunities that lie within the many by-products that you may not have considered in your goat ventures. A great class for those looking to get more from their goats.

Milking and Simple Pulse

I have a dairy goat, now what? Learn the techniques and care of milking goats with the specialists from Simple Pulse and learn how their milk machine is taking the dairy goat market by storm.

Pack Goats

Chris Parson and Chris Horn from Hermiston have been involved in the Pack Goat World for years. Join them as they host two sessions, which build on each other, on what they have found to be beneficial for the care of the pack goat, packing with goats, and equipment that they have made and use.

Cheese-Making

Cheese-making may be intimidating, but by actively preparing cheese and learning the basics, you can become confident to try at home and know the basic tools and processes.

At-Home Fecals and Deworming

How to do a fecal at home, knowing your equipment, and when and how to deworm effectively.

Market Goat Fitting and Showmanship

Covering the basics of how to start your youth market goat project, to the daily care of your animal, and ending with the day of the show tasks.

Cooking with Goat Meat

Hands-on experience with the exceptional Nora. Learn how the basics of recipes, seasoning, and preparing goat meat. You'll likely get to try a taste afterwards!

Dairy Goat Showmanship and Fitting

Reviewing the basics of choosing a goat for showmanship, training your animal, and coming prepared in the ring. We will review the scorecard, breaking down each category, and use a goat “hands-on” to better understand maneuvers and preparation.

Obstacle Course Training

Cover the basics of building a confident bond with your goat. We will explore the various obstacles that may come up in competition at your local fair.

Pregnancy Care, Ultrasounds, and Testing

Understanding the options for confirming pregnancy, completing ultrasounds at home, and managing the care and nutrition of your pregnant goats.
