Oregon 4-H Dairy Judging Team goes to Nationals!

The Oregon 4-H Team participating in the prestigious National 4-H Dairy Judging Contest has achieved a remarkable milestone by securing 3rd place overall. This outstanding accomplishment showcases the dedication and talent of these young individuals in the field of dairy judging.

The team, comprised of Clancy Krahn from Linn County, who secured an impressive 5th place individually, along with Peyton Rawe and Logan Lancaster from Tillamook County, placing 15th and 14th individually, respectively, have exemplified their expertise and passion for dairy judging.

Under the guidance of their devoted coach, Jim Krahn, these 4-H participants have honed their skills and knowledge to compete at a national level. Jim Krahn's mentorship and leadership have undoubtedly played a pivotal role in their success.

Furthermore, the team had the invaluable support of their 4-H Chaperone, Amy Krahn, who ensured their well-being and provided encouragement throughout their journey.

This achievement not only reflects the hard work and determination of these young individuals but also underscores the importance of 4-H programs in nurturing the talents and passions of youth in our community.

The Oregon 4-H Team's 3rd-place finish in the National 4-H Dairy Judging Contest is a testament to their commitment to excellence and their potential to become future leaders in the field of agriculture.
