

Naomi Price Memorial Scholarship Application

Naomi Price was a leading member of the Central Oregon beekeeping community. She was an outstanding Oregon Master Beekeeper, citizen scientist and mentor to numerous first-time beekeepers. She was passionate about getting young people into beekeeping. The scholarship award includes the initial equipment required to keep bees, a colony of bees, and registration fees for both the OSU Master Beekeeping Program and membership in the Central Oregon Beekeepers Association. The award also includes the support of a mentor to support the new beekeeper in their first season.

Applicant Criteria:

- Applicants must be a 4-H or FFA member in good standing.
- Applicants must reside in Deschutes County.
- Applicants must enroll in and complete the Getting Started level Oregon Master Beekeeping Program
- Scholarship recipients agree to create and enter a beekeeping exhibit for the following Deschutes County Fair.
- Applicants must be between 10 and 16 years old. Please note, all applicants must have an adult available to help with physical activities and to register for the level Oregon Master Beekeeping Program

Please complete and return this form to the 4-H Association, c/o OSU/Deschutes County Extension Service, 3800 SW Airport Way, Building 4, Redmond OR 97756

No later than 12/15/2025

Name _____

Address _____

City/Zip _____

Phone (day) _____ (cell) _____

Email _____

Parents _____

Are you currently a 4-H or FFA Member? Y N

Name of 4-H leader and/or FFA advisor(s) _____

Why are you interested in beekeeping?

Why are honeybees important to agriculture?

Describe the location where you will be keeping your bees

Do you have an adult available who is willing to help you with any physical work required? Who are they and are they willing to assist with the project as well as sign up for the OMB Getting Started course?

When working with bees you may occasionally be stung by them. What concerns do you have about working with stinging insects?

Thank you for considering my scholarship application.

Sincerely,

Signed

Date

